MISS ROOSEVELT SINKS IN BOAT

Descends on the Submarine Vessel Moccasin at Newport, Which, However, Does Not Leave Her Dock for Trial.

STAYED UNDER WATER ONLY A FEW MINUTES.

Experiment Was Successful and the Party Went Ashore Much Pleased with Their Brief Stay Below the Surface.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 10.—Miss Alice Roosevelt, daughter of the President, went down in the sub-marine boat Moccasin here to-day. The boat did not leave her dock at the torpedo station. Miss Roosevelt entered the boat with Capt. Fletcher, of the station. The crew then closed the hatches and water ballast was taken in until the vessel settled to the bottom. After being submerged for a few minutes that the novelty of the situation might be appreciated the vessel was sent back up to the surface and the voyagers disembarked.

GIRL AIDS MOTHER IN DIVORCE CASE

Selena Pemberton, in Tears on Witness Stand, Denies the Stories Told by Witnesses for Her Father.

The hearing in the counter suit for divorce brought by Mrs. Harriet Pemberton against Dr. H. H. Pemberton, of Long Branch, was resumed before Vice-Chancellor Stevenson to-day in Jersey City.

The principal witness was Miss Selena Pemberton, the daughter of the couple. Miss Pemberton is eighteen, tall and fine-looking. When she took the stand for her mother both she and Mrs. Pemberton began to cry and Dr. Pemberton also appeared to be affected.

Miss Pemberton testified that Alexander Anderson and Benjamin P. Kraft, both of whom were made co-respondents by Dr. Pemberton in his suit for divorce, were encouraged by her father to call at his house, and that she shared the intimacy with them. She had never seen anything improper in the relations between her mother and Anderson and Kraft. She said that Kraft, usually called with his mother and sister, and that he made no special effort to call when her father was away from home. With reference to two letters written by her mother to Kraft, she said they were written at her suggestion.

The witness was overcome by emotion and the Vice-Chancellor ordered that another witness be called, but Mrs. Pemberton got a glass of water for her daughter and the young woman after a short delay resumed her testimony.

Miss Pemberton said that Kraft was never alone with her mother on the piazza, as testified and charged in the doctor's suit. She said that the doors closed because her father's rooms were kept in a manner that they were all afraid of him.

Counsel for Dr. Pemberton asked the witness if she was afraid of her father and she answered that she certainly was. She said that her father treated her mother with cruelty. Kraft, she said, had been at the house only once when her father was absent, and then she spoke to her father when she met him.

"I spoke to him, but papa has absolutely refused to speak to me," she replied, beginning to cry again.

Miss Pemberton was asked whether this had not happened when she was with her mother, but she said that her father had refused to speak to her when she was alone.

Mrs. Lucinda Irwin and Mrs. Louis Rumpelmyer, of Camden, sisters-in-law of Mrs. Pemberton, testified in behalf of the plaintiff.

NEW YORKER IN AUTO SMASH

Mr. Martin, Described as a Hotel Man of This City, Drives Machine Into Ditch and a Member of His Party Is Killed.

THE OTHERS WERE SHAKEN BUT ESCAPED UNHURT.

Thought to Be One of Proprietors of Hotel Martin—Accident Occurred Near Bordeaux—Due to Deranged Machinery.

PARIS, Sept. 10.—A fatal automobile accident occurred yesterday evening at Barbe, near Bordeaux. A car conducted by an American, whose name was given as Martin, and who was said to be a hotel man of New York City, and who was accompanied by a party of guests from the Chateau de Pessac, owned by M. Eschenauer, of Bordeaux, started on a trip to Biarritz. While going at a high speed the machinery of the car became deranged and the vehicle dashed into a ditch. One of the occupants of the rear seat, M. Cuvillier, had his back broken and was killed outright. Martin had a shoulder injured, but the two other occupants of the car escaped uninjured. M. Cuvillier's body was taken back to the Chateau de Pessac.

DISGUISED POLICE INSPECTOR'S RAID

Wiegand, of Brooklyn, Surprises Capt. Summers, of Hamilton Avenue Station, by Bringing in Seventeen Prisoners.

Capt. Summers, of the Hamilton avenue police station, Brooklyn, was given a rare treat to-day. While taking life easy in his well-ordered station-house during the small hours of the morning he was surprised by a sudden turmoil at the outer door. The cause of the disturbance was Inspector Wiegand with seventeen men and women, the result of a raid at the resort, Nos. 112-113 Hamilton avenue.

Inspector Wiegand was not in blue and gold dress. Instead of the clothes of his police office he was clad in a fashion that knows no categorical name. He had meant his disguise to delude people into the belief that he was a farmer. Those who were fooled took him for a sailor.

For some time complaints have been coming in to the Central Office about a certain noisy resort on Hamilton avenue. Inspector Wiegand started out about midnight to see if there was any rock foundation for these complaints.

Looking for a "Time." Arriving at the place in question, his trustees distributed at proper places within the call of his mighty voice. The inspector rolled into the resort as if he were looking for a good time. "Hear, there," cried a man at the door, "he even stopped the flow of music."

"We are having a drink," shouted a girl, whose interest in dancing suddenly died. "Nothing more than a farmer from up State. Wonder if I can have a good time here. Guess not, though. It looks as if I would better go to real New York."

"Can you give you the best there is," said one man who just then felt his throat asserting itself. "This little old New York beat a mile."

Was a "Good Fellow." "Well, I'll try it for a while," said the inspector. Then the fun began. All hands were called on deck and a good old-fashioned breakdown kept men and women moving and the barkeepers busy. The inspector was thought to be the right sort. Then there was some more. "Let's have another reel," cried some one.

This time the inspector did not enter into the spirit. He called his whistle and the plain clothes men on the outside came inside. The inspector was never caught, however, winning easily by three lengths from Moharib, who closed fast and beat Race King a length and a half.

KILLED ONE; HUNTS OTHERS.
After Shooting Father-in-Law He Says Two More Must Die.

WATERLOO, Ill., Sept. 10.—William A. Hoffman, a young farm hand living near Maestown, Ill., called his father-in-law, Dr. William Brandt, to the door of his home and shot him dead.

Then he rode back to his home, told his wife that he "had killed the old hound," and gave her $25. Hoffman said he wanted her to spend on the christening of their four-weeks-old daughter. Mary, kissed her and their four children and rode into the woods. There are two men I must kill before I kill myself," he said to his wife before leaving.

RACE TRACK, SHEPHERD RAY, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Though there was only one stake on the card this afternoon the programme was very interesting. The first race alone, with its great flight of twenty-one two-year-olds warning out of the chute like rats from a sinking ship, was a marvel. This is an enormous field and one that furnishes a great spectacle.

The Flight Stakes was for all ages, and the good two-year-old High Ball was engaged to go with some of the fastest sprinters in training. The other events were attractive, particularly the mile race, which had so many two-year-olds engaged.

The weather was charming once more and the track fast. The attendance picked up several thousand and business improved correspondingly in the ring. Senator Patrick McGann announced this afternoon that he had decided to retire from all active participation in racing and would shortly sell out his stable. His horses include Seymour, Ocean Tide and other good ones. Senator McGann is a heavy player and has had luck this season. He gives no reasons for his retirement.
